

McVey Seminars Presents A Tailored "VIRTUAL" Consult on Coding & Reimbursement Solutions

The coding expert comes right to your office...as a virtual consult!

TIME FRAME?

2 to 3 hr, 1/2 Day or Full Day
Consults for your office

Given by:

One of our Senior Coding Experts with your specific specialty in mind.

Interested in McVey Associates, Inc. and our Virtual or Webinar consultation/training for your practice? I believe you will find us to be informative, well qualified, and professional regarding what we offer. You'll be able to set up the topics which our seminar leader will cover, and never even have to leave your office. This is a great way for larger offices to not shut down for day, and attend an actual meeting...we come to you! Thank you for your past patronage and continued interest.

How a Virtual Consults Work:

1. Call our 1-800-227-7888 ext. 101 and let our experts know what you'd like to have covered and what specialty, or fill out information on page two, and fax over.
2. The audio/video portion for this consult can be heard via landline, mobile or web browser. Major browsers on windows, MAC OS X & Linux.
3. You can have up to 25 connections from above options
4. You'll receive Dial-in access, and materials a few days before the consult.

- We wish to share an overall “position” from our experiences with thousands of participants over the past 34 years.
- Reminder: there are no "secret codes" for better payment. However, it seems as if there are interdependent steps that can be taken to ensure proper coding and obtain rightful reimbursement.
- One of our goals is to share the insights of successful Physician reimbursement. For instance, some attendees assume one coding approach works for all insurance carriers / administrators. Others feel that if they are aligned with the Medicare Carrier it should work for all others. Still, others seem to believe that there are guidelines for all carriers and hope that “right-will-out,” and that they will be vindicated against the carrier. We ask your willingness to suspend such positions until the virtual consult is over.
- Our experience dictates several “points of information” to recall for successful coding & reimbursement.
 - 1. There is contract insurance (HMO, PPO, EPO, etc....) private indemnity (no contract) insurance, and Medicare (CMS/Medicaid). When you accept a contract patient, you must be knowledgeable in the contract rules or suffer the inevitable consequences of down-coding, lower & non-payments or, even worse, penalties. You must also continue to stay updated in Medicare Coverage Policies & Decisions (LCD's).
 - 2. Private indemnity insurance only has a contract with the patient, unless you are the "participating physician" in that plan or accept assignment. If so, the physician has chosen to join the “loop” and is responsible for knowing the business rules of that carrier.
 - 3. There are thousands of insurance plans each having administrators. Therefore, there seem to be just as many philosophies for interpreting your coding approach.
 - 4. There is also the patient out of pocket obligation that must be included in your collection efforts.
- No one technique or approach works all the time. Success comes from trying different approaches and using what's best. Being willing to change or modify your approach every 6 to 12 months, or fight for your rights with administrative review, is the real world of insurance reimbursements.
